PRESIDENT: Clerk will clear the board. Senator Murphy has asked for a Call of the House. If you support a Call of the House vote aye. If not, vote no. The motion is for a Call of the House. Senator Murphy made the motion. Senator Murphy asking for a Call of the House. Please indicate your preference. Have you all voted? Clerk will record.

CLERK: 20 ayes, 9 nays to go under Call.

PRESIDENT: We're under Call. Next bell, please indicate your presence. This is just to have you indicate your presence please. We need to know who is here. We're under Call of the House. Please indicate your presence. Motion under vote is shall LB692 be advanced from General File to E & R Initial. Stand by, Senator Carpenter, just a minute, will you. Give them a chance.....Senator Murphy.

SENATOR MURPHY: I understand we have a number of members at the Supreme Court hearing room at the moment. I wonder if we could ask them to return just for a moment.

PRESIDENT: I think.....the Chair would rule that's permissible under the rules. That's what a Call of the House is for. Will the Sergeant at Arms get the committee from the Supreme Court hearing room. There's a group of senators at the Supreme Court hearing room. While he's doing that, the Chair would rule that as long as you don't leave the chamber, it's fine with the Chair. But we're under Call of the House. I would ask you remain in the chamber please unless you specifically clear with the Chair. We're under Call of the House but at ease until the committee comes back from the Supreme Court hearing room.

AT EASE

PRESIDENT: Okay. The Chair would like to once again remind the Body that you're under Call of the House and will you please take your seats. Please take your seats, we're under Call of the House. The motion under vote is, shall LB692 be advanced from General File to E & R Initial. That's the motion under vote.

CLERK: Senator Chambers voting no.

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers voting no.

CLERK: Senator Duis voting no.

PRESIDENT: We're under Call of the House, gentlemen.

CLERK: Senator Keyes voting no.

PRESIDENT: Senator Goodrich, Senator Fellman, please take your seats. We're under Call of the House and I've asked you to return to your seats at this time, please, until we dispatch the issue there. Thank you. Thank you, Senator Warner. Senator Marvel, we're under Call of the House, would you take your seat. Senator Marvel. Thank you. Senator Fred Carstens, would you please take your seat. Just a minute here. I think it's only fair because the Chair gave everybody ideas here that we get them back in their seats and we'll see what we have here. Senator....excuse me, Senator Simpson.

SENATOR SIMPSON: Mr. President, I move to raise the Call.
